

Sainsbury's Children's Book Awards 2019

Now in their eighth year, the Sainsbury's Children's Book Awards, run in partnership with BookTrust aim to highlight the best children's books for families to share together. Judged by a panel of experts, the awards aim to encourage parents and carers to spend more time reading with their children.

Baby and Toddler Winner: Sometimes Babies by Charlotte trounce. Nosy Crow ISBN: 978-1788008808) A book about babies for a new baby - with a mirror on the final page of this delightful boardbook!
Picture Book and Book of the Year The Littlest Yak by Lu Fraser and Kate Hindley (Simon & Schuster ISBN: 978-1471182617) This is a heart-warming story that encourages small children to celebrate their own particular talents. Despite Gertie being the smallest yak in the herd she soon learns there are things only she can do, and her smallness can do something big after all.
Fiction Twitch by M.G.Leonard. (Walker Books ISBN 978-1406389371) A wonderfully plotted mystery and a page turning adventure about an isolated bird-mad boy, some bullies, a search for an escaped convict and finding friends you can trust along the way. All imbued with a love of nature and the wonder of birds.
Learning and Development You are a Champion by Marcus Rashford and Carl Anka(Macmillan. ISBN: 978-1529068177) An inspirational self help guide sharing life lessons and practical advice he wishes he had read as a boy. With lots of anecdotes adding a personal touch this is accessible and enjoyable as well as encouraging of reading, hard work, team-building, confidence and humility.

Classic Award

Foxe's Socks by Julia Donaldson and Axel Scheffler (Macmillan ISBN 978-1529023473) In its 20th anniversary year and from the popular Tales from Acorn Wood series that has sturdy flaps on every spread and rhyming stories that are a joy to read aloud. Poor old Fox has lost his socks – can you help him find them?

